

New Alcohol Permits Good Only 90 Days

Wholesale Dealers in Product for Industrial Use Must Give Renewal Bonds Under Washington Ruling

12 Saloons Face Closing Brooklyn Injunctions Are Asked; Dry Agent Gets 30-Day Workhouse Term

Federal Prohibition Director C. R. O'Connor yesterday announced that the Washington authorities have made a new ruling which makes it possible for wholesale dealers who desire hereafter to deal in tax-paid industrial alcohol to do so by making an application in triplicate to their district prohibition officer.

If the application is approved, the dealer will receive a permit to purchase alcohol for ninety days, but he will be permitted to buy an amount during that time not exceeding the "maximum quantity" covered by the applicant's bond. In the case of bonds in the maximum sum of less than $50,000 the amount of proof gallons will be based upon the estimated proof gallons in the application for a period of ninety days.

Druggists' Sources Restricted

Permits will also be issued to druggists on application. This alcohol, however, may be purchased "only from dealers holding blanket permits" so-called, or from bonded warehouses.

At the close of each ninety-day period the permit is to be transmitted by the holder with an application for renewal endorsed on the back. The application for the renewal shall state the quantity of alcohol on hand and in transit. Immediately the director, in case he finds the permittee entitled thereto, shall promptly issue a renewal permit and forward it to the applicant. This renewal permit will be issued for not more than the maximum quantity covered by the applicant's bond or as indicated in his original application in case he has filed a bond for $50,000.

Applications for injunctions to close twelve saloons in Brooklyn as nuisances under the Volstead act were made to Federal Judge Garvin in Brooklyn yesterday by Assistant United States District Attorney Peter Brancato. At all of the places it was alleged that at least two convictions or pleas of guilty have been obtained.

List of Alleged "Nuisances"

The twelve places are those of: Diadri Lullien, 47 Fifth Avenue; Edward A. Luby, 1416 East Eighth Street; Cincinquin and Stanley Woropinski, 708 Third Avenue; Samuel Thier and Samuel Wolpert, 772 Third Avenue; Alexander Silverman, 688 Third Avenue; Edward O. Chandler, 22 Atlantic Avenue; Joseph Fenimore, 500 Kingston Avenue; Charles Klein, 5201 Second Avenue; Rudolph Osenfort, 293 Atlantic Avenue; Adam Nichten, 637 Third Avenue; Louis Jacobs, 422 Third Avenue; and Peter Muller, 1033 Third Avenue.

Magistrate Geismar, in the Flatbush, Brooklyn, Court, yesterday sentenced William Roberts, of 138 Fifth Street, Brooklyn, a Federal prohibition agent, to thirty days in the workhouse for breaking into the house of Elias Davis, at 610 East Eighth Street, Brooklyn, without a warrant and searching the house for liquor. It was shown that Roberts had no right to enter the house, and Davis testified that the former tried "to shake him down" for having liquor in his possession. Frank McNulty, a chauffeur, of 246 Fifth Street, Brooklyn, who accompanied Roberts, was fined $25, and will be brought up in a Federal court for impersonating an officer.

Fume Consumers Eliminate Strange Medley of Scents; West Side Rejoices

Residents of the upper West Side no longer need worry about the acid fumes wafted across the Hudson River from manufacturing plants on the New Jersey side, according to a report made yesterday by Dr. Theodore Horton, chief engineer of the State Department of Health.

Dr. Horton met with Dr. Hermann M. Biggs, State Health Commissioner, and representatives of the residents and the waterfront industries, at the Academy of Medicine, in West Forty-third Street. He said that, through the installation of fume consumers the manufacturing plants have minimized the odors until they no longer constitute a nuisance.

The hearing was brought about by the West End Association and the city against the Barrett Corn Products, the General Chemical and the Spencer Kellogg companies for the suppression of the alleged poisonous fumes coming from their plants.

Dr. Horton asked for further time to investigate because none of the plants is operating at capacity, and Commissioner Biggs continued the hearing until Mississippi Negro Lynched

Drys Fight to Amend Law and Forbid All Liquor Prescriptions

Anyway, Say Enforcement Officers, There Will Be No Beer at Soda Fountains, but Only on Bona Fide Doctor's Order

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The sign once displayed in the dining room of a North Carolina hotel announcing that to prevent guests taking fruit from the table there would be no fruit about expresses the view of dry leaders in Congress with respect to the ruling as to medicinal beer.

"If beer is to be prescribed in any quantity for everybody who is ailing, there will be no beer," was the upshot of opinions by House prohibitionists.

Several members, including some who worked for enactment of the Volstead law and who believe now that it ought to be tightened up, declared today that former Attorney General Palmer rightly construed the act in holding that beer, like liquor, could be prescribed for a sick man.

But they added that a physician might prescribe not more than a pint of whiskey in any ten-day period. Going back to pre-prohibition days, dry leaders recalled that the sick man's beer supply was rather liberal, certainly as compared with modern possibilities. It used to be prescribed by the case, and three bottles a day often was regarded as a moderate dose.

Prohibition enforcement officials declare they are not responsible for the idea that somehow has spread over the country that the new regulations will permit the sale and drinking of a glass of beer at a drug store fountain. There is not a chance. Druggists alone will

Drug Peddler Accuses Ship Captain and Crew

Prisoner Said to Have Confessed Being One of Ring Engaged in Smuggling From Germany

After Louis Malowski, of Brockville, Ontario, had turned over a large quantity of cocaine and morphine to two strangers at the Seamen's Church Institute, 25 South Street, yesterday afternoon the two strangers proffered a bundle of currency.

"No, don't give that to me here," Malowski is said to have whispered. "Let's go to some safe place."

The two strangers said they knew a place that was pretty safe. They led him to a place which he realized was a little too safe—Police Headquarters.

Special Deputy Police Commissioner Carleton Simon introduced the two strangers as Detectives Law and Hackett of the narcotic division.

Dr. Simon said that after he had talked with Malowski several minutes regarding the smuggling of drugs into this country the prisoner made a confession implicating the captain and crew of a steamer plying between South America and New York.

Papers found in Malowski's possession, according to Dr. Simon, reveal that he is a member of a ring engaged in selling in the United States cocaine and morphine which have been smuggled into this country from Germany.

Malowski said he served with the Canadian railway troops overseas during the war.

Sir D. Drummond Fraser to Visit Countries Asking Aid; Vienna Opposes Council Scheme

LONDON, March 19.—Sir D. Drummond Fraser, the Manchester banker, has been appointed by the economic and finance committee of the League of Nations as organizer of the scheme of international credits, proposed by Dr. Ter-Meulen, the Dutch financial expert, at the Brussels financial conference last October.

Sir Drummond's first task will be to visit impoverished countries for the purpose of making a report on the extent to which they wish to take advantage of the plan. Briefly, the scheme is to finance essential imports into these countries by the issue of gold bonds secured by assigned assets in the importing country.

BOTH SIMPLE AND ELABORATE STYLES REPRESENTING THE BEST OF THE IMPORTANT PARIS HOUSES, AS WELL AS OUR OWN EXCLUSIVE DESIGNS

VIENNA, March 19.—The plan of the Allies to assist Austria, an outline of which was given in dispatches from London today, was greeted without enthusiasm by this afternoon's newspapers. In general, the journals express disapproval of the stipulation that the League of Nations shall administer internal sources of revenue.

Under the relief plan the revenues from the customs and tobacco monopoly are to be administered by the financial committee of the League of Nations as a security for the payment of sums advanced to Austria and due from her under the peace treaty.

Drys Would Oust Hylan If He Ignores State Law

Anti-Saloon League Plans to Compel Obedience to New Enforcement Legislation

Mayor John F. Hylan's removal from office will be asked by the Allied Citizens of America and kindred organizations if he fails to carry out the prohibition enforcement law after its passage by the Legislature and approval by Governor Miller. The bill is scheduled for passage by the Assembly on Tuesday. It already has passed the Senate. It is understood the law will be in effect within ten days.

Samuel L. Hamilton, superintendent of the Metropolitan district of the Anti-Saloon League, whose investigation shows that the East Side saloons are "wide open" and selling intoxicants, said yesterday:

"It will be a show down on law enforcement. While it is not the business of the Anti-Saloon League to do police work, it is clearly our business to indicate to the police officers of the city and state when the prohibition act is violated. Mayor Hylan and his Police Department must be compelled to do their work."

"Following the signing of the new enforcement act by Governor Miller there is no doubt whatever that the law-respecting citizens of this city and state will demand the removal from office of any and all officials who disregard their oath of office and permit willful violations of the enforcement law."

Drug Manufacturers Protest Dry Rulings

Assert Alcohol Is Necessary in Many Compounds; Meeting Called for Monday in Capital

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Drug manufacturers, asserting that prohibition regulations now in effect are curtailing preparation of essential medicinal agents, have called a protest meeting to be held here Monday, under the auspices of the American Drug Manufacturers Association and the Organization of Pharmaceutical Chemists. Most of the larger producers of medicinal preparations will attend, it was announced today.

Alcohol as an extractive, solvent or preservative must be included in hundreds of compounds, a statement said, which "may be fit for beverage purposes, especially if the term is stretched to cover those alcoholic addicts who will take chances on anything containing alcohol, no matter how dangerous it is."

The logical and equitable way of enforcing the law is by ferreting out purchasers and sellers of alcohol for beverage purposes, and not by classifying essential medicinal preparations as intoxicating liquors, the statement added.
